LYRICS

No Matter What
(Kerrie Roberts, Chuck Butler, Tony Wood)

I'm running back to your promises one more time
Lord, that's all I can hold on to
I've got to say this has taken me by surprise
But nothing surprises you
Before a heartache can ever touch my life
It has to go through your hands
And even though I, I keep asking why
I keep asking why

No matter what, I'm gonna love you
No matter what, I'm gonna need you
I know that you can find a way
To keep me from the pain
But if not, if not, I'll trust you
No matter what
No matter what

When I'm stuck in this nothingness by myself
I'm just sitting in silence
There's no way I can make it without your help
I won't even try it
I know you have your reasons for everything
So I will keep believing
Whatever I might be feeling
God, you are my hope and you'll be my strength

Anything I don't have, you can give it to me
But it's ok if you don't
I'm not here for those things
The touch of your love is enough on its own

No matter what, I still love you
And I'm gonna need you

Take You Away
(Kerrie Roberts, Rob Graves, Mike Seminari, C. Todd Nielsen)

It's ok if you can't go and change what happened
It was just a bad day
And you know everybody has them
I get it when you say
You feel like everyone's passed you over
But it's not too late
I'll pick the weight up off your shoulders

I'm coming to take you away
To the place where the pain won't find you
I'm coming to take you away
So leave the weight of the world behind you
Oh, and you know
Nothing's too far, nothing's too hard
I'll always be there
I'm coming to take you away

Don't cry
'Cause you know that you're not alone now
Let me dry your eyes
Now it's time that you finally find out
There'll always be a new day
At the end of every hard one
You know I'm on my way
So I can be there to help you start one
I'm bringing a new sun

I'm coming to get you
So leave your bags at the home that held you down
You can't pack for the place we're going now
It doesn't matter what's going on
I'm the one to get you out
I'm gonna take you where the sun lights up your face
Where you can't remember yesterday
'Til the hurt has been replaced
I'm coming to take you away

Beautiful To Me
(Kerrie Roberts, Rob Graves, Stephanie Lewis, Bernie Herms)

So much I don't understand
That I'd change if I wrote the story
How pain could heal and death bring life
How defeat could bring such glory
You didn't hold back one breath
You even gave your last one so I'd live

It's beautiful to me
Your holy mystery
I'm standing here in awe
Of how you make everything
So beautiful to me
Someday I will see
How you hold this wounded heart
And make it perfect and complete
And it's beautiful to me
Beautiful

I don't deserve your suffering
I should be the one who's bleeding
But your broken body gives
This broken spirit what it's needing
You reach through time with your sacrifice
Your wounded hands holding this fragile life

This ache, this longing
This heart that I've been searching
In this moment while I'm breaking, show me
Your plan, your promise
A pain that has a purpose
I let you in to use it
And just like your hands built heaven's halls
You're making me so beautiful

It's beautiful to me
Every mystery
I'm standing here in awe
Of how you make everything
So beautiful to me
So perfect and complete
You hold this wounded heart
Someday I will see
And it's beautiful to me
Beautiful to me
Beautiful, beautiful
Beautiful to me
Beautiful to me

This Love Doesn't Run
(Kerrie Roberts, Rob Graves)

Here I am where I said
I never wanted to be again
I gave too much to what I shouldn't have
It took from me what little I had left
It hurt me so fast
Is there a place where I can rest
Where I can finally stay and be safe

Where I know that I belong
In hands that heal me
And I know I'm finally home
In arms that won't let go
It's the love that I need
It's the love that only you can bring
And I'll never be alone
'Cause this love doesn't run
No, this love doesn't run

What I lost and what is gone
Where I've been, it doesn't matter now
'Cause I've let go of holding on
To anything that's not your love
'Cause you're the only one I can live for
And I know that I'll never have to be afraid
Of losing what I gave
'Cause you keep me safe

I never knew the meaning of forever
I never heard the voice inside the storm
You hold my heart, you hold the world together
And only you can hold me now

Keep Breathing
(Kerrie Roberts)

You wait in darkness
For answers that you can't see
You know what you deserve and You're wondering why your life is
Not what you thought it should be
When the night breaks, your heart still aches
How can you face the day, you just

Keep breathing, you'll make it
Don't give in, you're not done yet
Sometimes all that you can do is
Keep breathing and believing
Don't let go, just hang on tighter, a little longer
When you feel like you're dying
Keep breathing

When every moment
Is almost more than you can take
You've got to know some tomorrow
Will bring you a breakthrough
That's the reason why
You've got to get through today
When the night's gone, you will be strong

With every breath you bring in hope
You're letting go of all your doubt
When nothing is easy, you've got to keep going
Even when you don't know how
You don't have to know how

Don't give up, don't give in, don't let go
No, you are not done yet

Unstoppable
(Kerrie Roberts, Rob Graves, Stephanie Lewis)

Be strong, be brave, be beautiful
One of these days you'll have it all
If you believe you can
Wake up and hold your head up high
Challenge your future to a fight
Open up your hands
No more lonely house of tears
Slam the door on all your fears
They're not welcome here

Anything is possible, possible
You gotta believe and see
That love is unstoppable
You can never go too far, never be too gone
That you can't turn it around
You will see that love is unstoppable
Keep going, keep going, keep pushing, keep pushing

Sometimes life seems so typical
Some days you might see a miracle
If you believe you can
This world, this cruel, this crazy place
Makes you feel like you're losing everything
Your mind, your faith, your way
But you can find it all again
Reclaim your innocence
No, it's not the end

Nothing's gonna break you down, stop you now
Nothing's ever gonna be that bad, hold you back
You can never go too far, never be too gone
That you can't turn it around
Just believe that anything's possible

Outcast
(Kerrie Roberts, Jason McArthur, Cindy Morgan, Jeremy Bose)

Since I can remember, guess I've been a problem
Never had a filter, never been the popular one
To sugar coat what I know is undeniable
I just can't hide it, I wear it like a "letter"
Everywhere I go, everyone is talking
I can feel them staring, they hope I'm just pretending
And giving up my power, caving in to pressure
I'm not living for them, I live for something better

I'm not good enough, I'm not what they want
But let me tell you what, I know who I am
So just throw me out for not fitting in
I will stand my ground and be an outcast
So what if I'm an outcast
So what if I'm an outcast

So what if I don't look the part I'm supposed to play
What if I don't follow all the rules they make
They think I should be perfect
They love it when I mess up
No grace in case I blow it
"A good girl shouldn't need it"

So what if I'm an outcast
So what if I'm an outcast
So slow when everybody's so fast
So what if I'm an outcast

I try to play nice, I don't want to fight
But I won't be gray when it's all black and white
'Cause what I believe is what makes me strong
If I don't belong, I hold on to love

So what if I'm an outcast
So what if I'm an outcast
So slow when everybody's so fast
No matter what it costs, I'll be an outcast

Maybe I'm Afraid
(Kerrie Roberts, Rob Graves)

There's no way I can hide
It's written on my face
And all these complications now

Maybe I'm afraid to open up and let you in Behind the curtain
And maybe I'm afraid of the questions that I know you'd raise
Of what I thought was certain
Maybe I'm afraid of the mess that it's sure to make
Of all I tried to simplify and organize
But I just can't deny that

There's no way I can hide
It's written on my face and all the complications
Fumbling with my equations now
They crumble to the ground
With everything I fought to be without your help
'Cause if I let you in
I'll never be the same, so I try to escape
Maybe I'm afraid

Maybe I'm afraid to let it go and just accept
The love you've spoken
Maybe I'm afraid of the way that I know you'll fix
Everything that's broken
Or maybe I'm afraid 'cause I don't know who you are
And that the more I keep from you
The more I'll lose, so what am I holding on to

Afraid I'll be complete
And still so weak in your hands
Maybe I'm afraid
Afraid that it won't last
I'll only be only half without you

Maybe I'm afraid to let you change my heart
With all it's hiding
And maybe I'm afraid that I just might fall apart
Unless you're beside me
And I know

There's no way I can hide
It's written on my face and all the complications
Fumbling with my equations now
They crumble to the ground
With everything I fought to be without Your help
'Cause if I let You in, I'll never be the same
No, I can't escape
But maybe I'm afraid
Maybe I'm afraid

Love Comes Down
(Kerrie Roberts, Rob Graves, Jason McArthur)

Weak and weary sinner, longing for relief
You've been watching as disaster steals another piece
Of all that you've held so close
What you love the most, but you could never keep
And hope seems like a promise just out of reach
You'd die to feel alive again
You long to be set free

Then love comes down
When your heart is lost
When you've seen your whole world shatter
And you're dreams just fall apart
So lift up your voice
Let him hear your cry
When you've got nothing left to hold on to
That's when love comes down
Love comes down

If you could only know who loves you
Who feels your every pain
If you could only hear him speaking
With a voice as sweet as rain
You'd know that he counts your tears
He holds them near, not one will go to waste
And the sorrow that weighs you down
Will float away
Well that's when love is stronger than any heartbreak
And you know every broken piece will be made whole

Then love comes down when you need it most
When you see your world get shattered
Without love, it all falls apart
So lift up your voice
Let him hear your cry
That's when love comes down
When love comes down
When love comes down
That's when love comes down
That's when love comes down

Savior To Me (Sing Glory)
(Kerrie Roberts, Rob Graves, Jason McArthur, Jasen Rauch)

Before the break of that first dawn
You wrote the secrets of the world
You filled the ancient skies
With your voice and light
Before the world began to spin
You knew the heart of broken man
And how to save our lives
With your perfect sacrifice
What words could tell
What song could sing and bring

Glory to the God above
Full of truth and endless love
He who is and was and always will be
I surrender to the One
Gentle and most powerful
Of all the things you are, you've chosen to be
A Savior to me

You have made the light to shine
Through the darkness of all time
And that light was life in the face of Jesus Christ
You've caused a dawn within my soul
My heart no longer is my own
I want to praise you now
With every breath that you allow
What words could tell
What song could sing and bring

And I sing holy to God Almighty
And I sing glory to God Almighty
And I sing glory to God Almighty
