Project Assembles National Worship Leaders On Live Worship Recording Including New Original Songs

(Nashville, Tenn.) July, 30 2012 --Essential Worship's One Sonic Society (OSS) released its latest project and first live recording, Live At The Tracking Room, via digital music outlets on July 17 during the Worship Leader conference in Kansas City, Ks. The album assembled worship leaders from across the country to participate in recording both songs that have recently penetrated the church worship movement, as well as several new songs. All songs on Live At The Tracking Room were either written or co-written by OSS members, Jason Ingram, Stu G. and Paul Mabury.

Produced by One Sonic Society, Live At The Tracking Room captures a live worship experience from the place OSS spends most of its time – the studio – producing not only its own albums but others in the worship and CCM community. The album assembled worship leaders from across the country including Vertical Church Band (the worship team from Harvest Bible Chapel), Tim Timmons and Mia Fieldes to name a few. In all, there were 53 worship leaders present, representing more than 40 churches on the recording.

The album also includes three songs recorded for the first time by OSS. A complete track listing is as follows:

Track Listing:

1) The Greatness Of Our God
2) Lay Me Down
3) Always
4) Higher Than All
5) Holy (Jesus You Are)
6) Jesus, Son Of God
7) Light Shine In
8) Almighty God
9) Forever Reign
10) As For me
11) God You Are My God

OSS is the cover feature for the July/August 2012 issue of Worship Musician magazine and will bring Live At The Tracking Room to eight worship conferences through the year's end. Songs, chord charts and how-to-play videos will also be serviced to the worship and church community through EssentialWorship.com and other portals.

Live At The Tracking Room was also filmed in its entirety via an eight-camera shoot; hence the video will be shared at worship conferences and online worship outlets. Individual song videos will be rolled out by means of a YouTube and Vevo campaign beginning later this month.

Live At The Tracking Room will be available at physical retail outlets Oct. 2. At that time the digital, long form video will be available at iTunes. For more information on One Sonic Society and Live At The Tracking Room, visit www.onesonicsociety.com.
