Small Rebellions

(Jars of Clay)

God of the break and shatter Hearts in every form still matter In our weakness help us see That alone we'll never be Lifting any burdens off our shoulders

If our days could be filled with small rebellions
Senseless brutal acts of kindness from us all
If we stand between the fear and firm foundation
Push against the current and the fall, the current and the fall

God of the worn and tattered
All of your people matter
Give us more than words to speak
'Cause we are hearts and arms that reach
And Love climbs up and down the human ladder

Give us days to be filled with small rebellions Senseless brutal acts of kindness from us all If we stand between the fear and firm foundation Push against the current and the fall, the current and the fall

We will never walk alone again No, we will never walk alone again No, we will never walk alone again

Call My Name

(Jars of Clay)

I'll go when you call me I'll run when you tell me where to go We are desert walkers under shaded clouds Your fire shows there's more of you to know

Let our idols fail Vanity subside We will see the beauty in our lives

When I hear you call my name When I hear you call my name Send me to the edge of the earth Show me what a life is worth When I hear you call my name

I will wait in the darkest hours
For you will be a light on this road
Lead me out to the ground I've never walked on
Only to rely on you alone

This is my Father's world And to my listening ear My heart is still at home When I hear you call my name

We Will Follow

(Jars of Clay)

In the shadow of the cross where my first love died In the valley where we learn how to climb so high Will you open my heart and reach inside Till the blood on your hands is yours, not mine

Set us free, trust the mystery Till our eyes are clear enough to see you

Where you lead us, we will follow Where you lead us, we will follow you On the hill of the rich in the city of the poor Where the wealth is in the hands of who needs you more 'Cause there's nothing in our view you haven't made No one that you've touched that you haven't saved

So set us free to love the mystery
Till our eyes are clear enough to see you

Where you lead us, we will follow Where you lead us, we will follow Where you lead us, we will follow you

Open up our hearts and reach inside Open up our hearts and reach inside

Eyes Wide Open

(Jars of Clay, Phillip LaRue)

Talk to me, 'cause I've been talking to myself Help me get these thoughts out of my own head I don't believe, most days I don't believe Mercy is true, it's hard to live with the things I do

So God, bruise the heels we've dug in the ground That we might move closer to love Pull out the roots we've dug in so deep Finish what you started Help us to believe

Keep our eyes wide open Love is kind and love is daring, everything we need to keep our eyes Keep our eyes wide open Love is kind and love is daring, everything we need to keep our eyes

We can't go on, it seems this conversation's done It's so hard to win these fights and love you at the same time So take my hand till grace makes her way to bend Till the things I've set to ruin only lead to my own end

Draw us in, send us out Draw us in, send us out Draw us in, pour us out Help us to believe

Shelter

(Jars of Clay)

To all who are looking down Holding onto hearts still wounding For those who've yet to find it The places near where love is moving

Cast off the robes you're wearing
Set aside the names that you've been given
May this place of rest in the fold of your journey
Bind you to hope, you will never walk alone

In the shelter of each other, we will live, we will live In the shelter of each other, we will live, we will live Your arms are all around us

If our hearts have turned to stone
There is hope, we know the rocks will cry out
And the tears aren't ours alone
Let them fall into the hands that hold us

Come away from where you're hiding Set aside the lies that you've been living May this place of rest in the fold of your journey Bind you to hope that we will never walk alone

If there is any peace, if there is any hope We must all believe, our lives are not our own We all belong God has given us each other And we will never walk alone

Out Of My Hands

(Jars of Clay, Gabe Ruschival, Jeremy Lutito)

I wasted a rescue Abandoned the mission I failed by my own hands And watched it all go wrong

You said you could save me That I couldn't save myself You said that you loved me No matter what I've done

When the light is gone and life is just a dare we take Still the fight goes on to give my heart away

And it's out of my hands, it was from the start In light of what you've done for me In light of what you've done for me You lifted my head, set me apart In light of what you've done for me This is what you've done for me It's out of my hands It's out of my hands

We grow where the light is Like trees in the highlands We're bent by our own plans To keep us in the dark

I act like an orphan Forget that you found me You came like a whisper And saved me with a spark

When the light is gone and life is just a dare we take Still the fight goes on and on to give my heart away

There's nothing in the world that I can offer Nothing in the world that I can stand upon Apart from you, apart from you There's nothing in my life, nothing in my life That you haven't given to me

No Greater Love

(Jars of Clay, Laura Story, David Crowder, Gabe Ruschival, Jeremy Lutito)

Is it life in vain
Are we ghosts rattling chains
When we get what we want
Are the problems still the same

'Cause my hands can't heal While I'm holding on so tight And my heart won't care enough To pick a better fight

Show me the beauty of a life Show me the beauty of a life Show me the beauty of a life

No greater love, no greater love And you say, there's no greater love

Is it still my turn
I think I'm the last one left to learn
That the life I lose
Is the least of my concerns

Show me the beauty of a life Show me the beauty of a life Show me the beauty of a life Laid down

Run In The Night (Psalm 27)

(Jars of Clay, Thad Cockrell)

I know who I am
Once I was nameless, alone and you found me
You formed my knees to bend
You call me Beloved, I am perfection

All my failures won't condemn me Or leave me paralyzed and bound When I'm at my worst Your Love, it finds me first

By you, I can run in the night For by you, I can run in the night

For I am such a man Seized by the power of a great affection No matter where I am Peace spreads below me in every direction

When evil sets the war upon me I won't stumble, I won't fall Though they do their worst Your love has found me first

For by you, I can run in the night For by you, I can run in the night For by you, I can run in the night

Hide me in the shelter of Keep me in the cover of Lead me in the light of your love Hide me in the light of your love

No matter where I am Whom shall I fear Lead me in the light

(Sara Groves, Ben Gowell, Aaron Fabbrini)

Oh, we'll never be short on people And we'll never be short on trouble It's a well-worn path, so how on earth can we feel alone

Why carry on our own what's common to all men Why drag your bag of bones to hell and back again Why carry on our own what's common to all men Look around, lay it down

Oh, we'll never be short on good news And somebody to tell our story to And we'll never be short on redemption And light for the dark

Love Will Find Us

(Jars of Clay)

Child of all creation, don't let the world define you And if you can't remember who you are Let these words remind you

On the path of the empty-handed He will speak to the heart of the abandoned

These orphan hearts will find a home Run to these arms, be not alone Light is leading, love will find us all Love will find us all

So hard to feel the fires of home when all we see is darkness We forget we're not our own and grasp for what's around us

Till the dawn starts to break around you Let all the stars in the night remind you

Benediction

(Jars of Clay)

Go into the world Showing how much He loves you Walk in the world In merciful ways He loves you He loves you Emmanuel on earth God with us on earth

Yours is the body
The hands and the feet
And yours are the eyes
To look compassionately
To bless you and me
Bless you and me
He will bless you and me

Go into the world Showing how much He loves you Walk in the world In meaningful ways He loves you He loves you Emmanuel on earth God with us on earth
