Worship Team Hails From Second Fastest Growing Church in America 14-Song Project For The Honor Releases Nov. 22

(NASHVILLE, Tenn.) Oct. 18, 2011-- Elevation Worship, a Charlotte, N.C.-based worship team from one of America's fastest growing churches will release its national debut album, For The Honor, on Essential Worship November 22.

Worship leaders Wade Joye, Mack Brock, Chris Brown and London Gatch lead Elevation Worship and serve full-time at Elevation Church in Charlotte, N.C. The church, established by Pastor Steven Furtick, launched with eight families and one massive vision to reach people far from God.

In fewer than six years, Elevation Church has grown to more than 10,000 people at six locations across the Charlotte area, making it the second fastest growing church in America. Pastor Steven is also becoming one of the most influential leaders, speakers and authors in the country.

From the beginning, Pastor Steven had a vision for Elevation Worship to write and record songs that reflected the church's journey, experiences and needs. The fourth album from Elevation Worship, and its first national release, For The Honor features all original songs including the title track, "Give Me Faith", "All Things New," "Exalted One" and "The Church." As with recent movements including Hillsong, Passion and Jesus Culture, Elevation Worship seeks to bring new ideas to the worship arena, connecting with other worship leaders as well as churches to better serve God and His Church through worship.

Worship Pastor Wade Joye says, "We have seen God do the impossible in our church time and time again, and we consider it such an honor to give voice through these songs to the great things He has done. Our prayer is that all who hear this project will be inspired to believe that the Lord can do the same in their own lives and churches."
