

Highly Anticipated, Co-Headlining Building 429 "United We Stand" Tour Launches

Nashville, TN (September 18, 2013) -- One of the major tours of the fall, "United We Stand" Tour, is scheduled to launch on Thursday, September 19 in Wichita Falls, TX and will run through November 3. The tour features co-headliners Building 429 and The Afters, along with special guests Hawk Nelson and Finding Favour. The rehearsal run-through late last week delighted the industry audience as the high-energy extravaganza will bring a message of hope and salvation to audiences across the country. The tour is sponsored by Liberty University and Food For The Hungry with tour updates available online at www.building429.com.

"The United We Stand Tour has been an exciting tour for Jeff Roberts & Associates to book, as there has been so much excitement from churches to host it," says Jeff Roberts, President, Jeff Roberts & Associates. "Everyone on the team is looking forward to seeing the big response by fans throughout the fall, as they experience this amazing show and evening of ministry by four great bands."

Following the "United We Stand" Tour, Building 429 will join the Winter Jam Tour Spectacular in November. For tour updates on the band and their new album, We Won't Be Shaken visit www.Building429.com, www.facebook.com/building429 or www.twitter.com/building429.
